Each Fall, students studying on the Panama City campus are eligible to opt-in to the Panama City Football Access Fee at a cost of $50. The Football Access Fee will provide the student with the same football ticket access that a Main Campus student would have, which includes the potential for one free student ticket and the ability to purchase up to two guest tickets for most home games. The FSU student ticket allotment is located in the North Endzone, in sections 40, 41, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. All FSU student seating is general admission, first-come, first-served. Students will be notified of their eligibility prior to gameday as part of the general notifications sent by Athletics to all qualified students.

You can find more information about the student ticketing process here: <https://seminoles.com/studenttickets-2/>.

Remember: opting-in to the Panama City Football Access Fee does not guarantee that you will receive a ticket for every game, but it does put you on the same ground as all other Main Campus students. You cannot opt-out of the fee once you have opted-in.
